Gospel Meditation

Jean Améry, a Holocaust survivor tortured by the Nazis, later wrote about the abyss of human evil. He described his reaction as an “indignant despair. “Haven’t we all, to some degree, felt that abyss opened beneath us? A sudden loss, a violent headline, a moment of loneliness or panic, when the world feels fragile and meaning seems to collapse?”

It is to this fear that Jesus speaks in today’s Gospel: “Do not be afraid of those who can kill the body.” (Matthew 10:28) He does not deny evil or pretend we will never suffer. Instead, He reframes the abyss: do not fear those who can kill the body but cannot kill the soul. Your life is seen, known, and counted by the Father. Even the hairs of your head, even the sparrow’s fall.

This is no superficial comfort. Jesus himself has entered the abyss: suffering, death, even our sense of forsakenness, and he has come through it. That is why his words, “Do not be afraid,” hold such weight. They do not erase the abyss but build a bridge across it.

Faith is not pretending everything is fine. It is staring into the abyss and still choosing trust. And in that trust, we discover we are never alone. Christ stands with us, and the Father’s care surrounds us. That is the only comfort deep enough for our (often fearful) hearts.

— Father John Muir

Stewardship

June 13-14, 2026

Offertory $5,526

Thank you for your support!

God and Father of all creation, we come before you today with humble hearts. You are our model of a loving father. When we fail and fall short of your expectations, you are always there at the end of the day with open arms, ready to heal the cuts and scrapes of the day and to encourage us to try again and not give up. We hold these men in our midst who act in the world as fathers to their children or models of fathers for others. Bless them in their moments of doubt and frustration with their children. Give them warm and open hearts to forgive failures. Provide them with the words needed for encouragement and perseverance. We ask this in the name of Jesus. Amen.

Envelopes are in the vestibule for your consideration.

Relics of St. Francis of Assisi

For the first time in 800 years, relics of St. Francis of Assisi will be coming from Italy to the Cathedral of St. Mary of the Assumption on Friday, October 16, 2026, and will be on display for veneration through November at the Cathedral from 9:00 AM - 5:00 PM. In honor of this special year, Archbishop Cordileone has designated several locations where the faithful may make a pilgrimage and pray devoutly to fulfill conditions for receiving a *plenary indulgence: National Shrine of St. Francis of Assisi; Mission Dolores Church; St. Francis of Assisi Catholic Church in East Palo Alto; Mission San Rafael; and St. Mary's Cathedral. For more information, please go to www.sfarch.org/special-year-of-st-francis/

*To gain a plenary indulgence, in addition to excluding all attachment to sin, even venial sin, it is necessary to perform a prescribed work designated by the Church (such as praying the stations of the cross in a church or visiting one of the designated pilgrimage sites) and fulfill the following three conditions: sacramental confession, Eucharistic Communion, and prayer for the intentions of the Pope.
